Seabrooke Opera Company.

One of the most magnificent and gorgeous productions that have ever been produced here will be presented at the Academy of Music Monday, April 29th. There is every element in the work for winning favor from the modern patron of comic opera. Sparkling music, effervescent humor, gay costumes and dazzling scenery are the sure foundation upon which Mr. Seabrooke's Opera Company in "The Isle of Champagne" has been built. Mr. Thomas Q. Seabrooke has everywhere made a tremendous hit. He is indisputably funny in his make-up and is every inch a comic opera king.

The reserved seats' sale will open tomorrow morning. Prices: First floor, $1 and $1.50; balcony, 50c. and $1; gallery, 25c.

Schooler Ship.

The schooner Lester A. Lewis, Capt. Burgess, with a large crew of lumber from Norfolk for New York, struck on the Bomber Shoal at 9 p. m. Saturday, and began filling at 1 a. m. Sunday. The crew had to stay on the deck, which commenced washing away. The Captain said he mistook the light on the Bomber Shoal for some other light. Chapman's wrecking Company sent a steamer to the schooner, which was floated at high tide and was towed to New York. Her mainmast is broken off short, and her mizzenmast is gone by the board. The crew were saved.

The Contracts Let.

As stated in THE VIRGINIAN several days ago, the contracts have been let for the work at Ocean View. The carpenter's contract for the hotel has been awarded J. J. Lawler & Co., the painting to N. B. Teague; galvanized iron work, Globe Stove Company; papering, to M. Umstadter. The contracts for the pavilion, were let to John Jones, carpenter work; painting, Star Paint Company; galvanized iron work, Globe Stove Company; plumbing, J. J. Lawler & Co. The amusement hall building will be 30x120 feet. Contracts have not yet been let.

The Gladstone Team.

The School Book Question.

CHURCHLAND, Va., April 22, 1895.

Editor of the Virginian:

Since writing my previous communication to the secretary of the School Board, reports another school with an enrollment of 161 pupils, and an expense for books of $18.81, an average of about 11 cents per pupil. I have learned also of an error in the report of one of the schools included in the previous communication. The principal in making out his report did not confine himself to what had actually been spent for books that session, but included what would have been spent if each pupil had been supplied with the books actually needed. The omission and error reduce the average cost per pupil to about 33 cents.

CARPENTER-M'CARRICK.

Early Morning Marriage at York Street Chapel.

Mr. George J. Carpenter, of Newport News and Miss Mary Gertrude McCarrick, of Norfolk, daughter of the late Capt. P. McCarrick, were married yesterday morning at the York Street Catholic Chapel. Rev. Father F. X. McCarty performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Father Donohoe, of Newport News. There were no attendants. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter left on the 7:15 a. m. train for a Northern tour.

Funeral of Mr. Chas. R. Turner.

The funeral of Mr. Chas. R. Turner took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of his sister, Mrs. A. E. White, on High street and was conducted by Rev. E. H. Hawkins of Centenary M. E. Church. Members of Atlantic Lodge Knights of Pythias of Portsmouth and Wyandotte Tribe of Red Men of Norfolk and Norfolk Lodge of Elks were present to pay a last tribute of respect to the deceased brother.

DEATH OF MRS. FARRIN.

Mrs. Ann Farrin died at her residence, No. 48 Queen street, at an early hour yesterday morning, aged 84 years. The deceased was the mother of Mr. James Farrin, and was a most estimable woman. The funeral will take place at 10 a. m. Thursday from St. Mary's Catholic Church, of which she was a member.

Suit for Damages.

A suit has been entered in the Court of Law and Chancery by Mr. John G. Tilton for Peter Miller, aged 6 years, who asks $1,000 damages from Mr. H. T. Wrightson, proprietor of a wood and coal yard on Kelly avenue, for false arrest and imprisonment. It appears that on January 13th the child was arrested and carried before the Police Justice charged with stealing wood from the Wrightson yard and the charges against the little fellow were dismissed.

LAMBERT'S POINT LODGE

Organized Last Night at Elks' Hall in Norfolk.

THE GRAND LECTURER PRESENT

The Lodge Starts Off With Large Membership. The Officers for the Ensuing Term. Banquet at the Mansion House Last Night.

Another lodge of Odd Fellows was instituted at Elks' Hall last evening in the room of Columbia Lodge No. 41. The new lodge is to be located at Lambert's Point, and will be known as Lambert's Point Lodge No. 99. The new lodge starts off with a membership of forty-two members.

Grand Lecturer E. B. Branch supervised the installation of the different lodges. A very large crowd was in attendance. A banquet was tendered by the new lodge. Officers of the new lodge were elected and installed as follows: R. E. Smith, noble grand; L. H. Corley, vice grand; J. W. Baylor, treasurer; Thomas A. Smithers, permanent secretary; E. E. Baker, recording secretary; Thomas Allen, chaplain.

An elegant banquet was served at the Mansion House.

Cut With a Knife.

Last night in a row at the corner of Scott and Queen streets a negro woman cut a white man with a knife, inflicting a dangerous wound. She was arrested and locked up. The case will be heard by the Police Justice this morning.

Has a Familiar Sound.

The New York Tribune has persuaded itself that the Democrats are now the calamity howlers, and in corroboration it cites a Democratic statesman out of a job as saying:

"The Republican party is as badly divided on the money question as the Democratic party is, and it will be unable to frame or pass a financial measure that will be acceptable to the country."

But the remark was not original with this Democratic statesman. In fact, it was a secondhand calamity howl, a precisely similar forecast having been attributed to Senator Sherman.—New York Mercury.

McKinleyism Has One Supporter.

Hon. Thomas Brackett Reed, opposer any attempt to revise the tariff on the part of the Fifty-fourth congress, says the Philadelphia Record. He is wise in his generation. The tariff needs to be amended by the correction of a few admitted errors, but it is doubtful if it will ever again be changed in the direction of McKinleyism. There is no one among the leading statesmen of the Republican party who appears to be willing to make a stand for the re-enactment of the tariff of 1890 except the gentleman who became sponsor for that unfortunate measure and for the defeat which it brought upon his party.

Uncle Sam's Flag Driven From the Sea.

Not a single merchant vessel bearing the American flag passed through the Suez canal last year. This is not surprising, because we have no merchant marine. It is the system under which the flag has been driven from the seas that must answer for the result. And all the time the advocates of that system have been preaching about the necessity of protection to American industries.—Milwaukee Journal.

Full of Business.

"Do you belong to the Law and Order society, major?"

"Yes, sir. Got anybody you want lynched?"—Atlanta Constitution.

The Wish Granted.

You have often wished for something to take the place of pills. Now try a 25 cent package of Simmons Liver Regulator, powder. Take it dry, on the tongue, or make it into a tea. It is pleasant to take, and gives quick relief—two good recommendations.

RIDGELL. At his late residence, No. 614 Washington street, Portsmouth, Va. April 22d, 1895, at 1:00 p. m., WILLIAM H. RIDGELL, aged 61 years.
